Archbishop Dermot To Re-Visit Ossory

Archbishop Dermot Farrell will visit Ossory on Tuesday 9th November to meet with priests and people and to pray Vespers (evening prayer) with them to mark his translation from Ossory to Dublin.

The afternoon will begin in St Kieran's College with a priests' Conference, followed with a presentation by the priests to Archbishop Dermot. At 7.30pm (to be confirmed later) all will gather in St Patrick's Church for Evening Prayer of The Church. It is hoped that all parishes will be well represented by church and secular committees at this formal 'Goodbye, Thanks and Best Wishes' to a man who did so much for the diocese in such a short time.

Synodal Process In The Local And Universal Church

In these days, the Catholic Church throughout the world and in Ireland is beginning a series of conversations about what God wants of his people at this time. These conversations are often referred to as a Synodal Process.

"Synodal" comes from a Greek word which means "walking together".

On Sunday 17th October we mark the opening of this Synodal Process entitled, For a synodal Church: communion, participation and mission.

This Synodal Process coincides with the start of the two-year Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland which will lead, in time, to a National Synodal Assembly in Ireland.

We pray that the next two years will be a time of prayer, listening and discernment, involving a consultative conversation. This will allow all people - both within the Church and in society at large, to share their insights into the Catholic Church in Ireland - past, present and future - so that we can prepare for a National Synodal Assembly in the coming years.

Consult www.catholicbishops.ie/synod - to learn more about the Synodal Pathway for the Catholic Church in Ireland,
