St Colmcille's Well

The Annual Pattern Mass at St Colmcille's Well on Hatchery Lane will be celebrated tomorrow (Monday) evening at 7.30pm. We look forward to fine weather and a large turnout.

Cemetery Masses

The Cemetery Masses in the Old Cemetery and Cappagh Cemetery were flagged in error for the first and second Fridays of June in last week's Newsletter.

They should, of course, have been be flagged for the first and second Fridays of July. Apologies for any confusion caused.

Leaving & Junior Certs

We all continue to pray for all the girls and boys sitting State Exams during these weeks. Helpful prayer-cards can be found at the back of the church.

Rower Community Initiative

"The Rower Graveyard Committee has lodged an application for planning permission for a new graveyard to be located in Murphy's field behind The Rower Church. Layout and site map are available to view on the information boards at the entrance to the old graveyard and the porch in The Rower Church.

If you have any queries on the planning application please contact Michael Doyle at 087 394 1244. Assuming planning permission is granted a public meeting will be held in the Rower Hall in the near future. Planning Reference No. 2460229"

Courage of Our Convictions

Modern "liberal-minded" people may find genuine Christians' belief in and practice of Christ's ideas and ideals "a bit crazy".

Hence, what is needed in a Christian is the courage of his or her convictions based on the authority of Jesus as God and the truth of his teachings.

Bereavements

Anniversaries: John Tierney, The Hatchery (11.00am); Imelda O'Carroll, Mill Road; Mick Meaney, Cullaun.

Next w/e: Patrick & Eileen O'Carroll, Coolnamuck (9.30am); Fr Jim Cassin, Coolroebeag (11.00am).

A gentle reminder that cleaning in the Church of The Assumption, The Rower, is carried out on the FIRST WEDNESDAY of every month at 6.00 pm. More volunteers to help are needed and will be very much welcomed.
