Amongst the many items on the Parish Pastoral Council's agenda meeting last Wednesday was the value of having parishioners Eircode on the parish system. It's important to emphasise that having a person's Eircode does not conflict in any way with our GDPR regulations.

For a parish to have Eircodes for its own purposes could make a huge difference in the case of trying to locate a home, e.g., in case of an emergency - particularly in the dark of the night.

So, unless you're sure we have it already, we ask that you write your name, address and Eircode on a piece of paper and drop it in to the church/office.

Statue of the Sacred Heart
